

AYDIN BORU

INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY

As a member of Aydin Boru Family,

- The competition on the world market predicted, we will supply products of high quality and standards for unconditional customer satisfaction stipulated.
- We are going to complete and comply all the International Legal Regulations.
- We are going to review all our activities constantly focused on human and environment. To minimize the negative environment effects from the activities, we'll take all the necessary precautions to prevent work accidents and diseases and we will work on to improve them.
- We will the awareness, consciousness and responsibility of our employees to make our integrated management system more effective
- we will use our limited natural resources efficiently.
- Decreasing the throws, separate waste reduction, recycle and legal disposal of the necessary ones will be done.
- We will set an example to all our competitors and shareholders.
- Our integrated management system policy is, to continuously improve our quality, environment and occupational health and safety policies with a risk-oriented approach by taking into consideration the demands and expectations of society.

General Manager